

Wanamaka Sun, 4/10/12

A visit from Rocket

The children at Aspiring Beginnings have been learning about dog safety for the last few months. As well as following guidelines and meeting a few dogs, they have been learning how to care for and be kind to the animals. They met avalanche dog Rocket this week and learned about how he was trained. Rocket is owned by Aspiring Avalanche Dog handler Matt Gunn. Matt talked to the children about training the avalanche dogs and about the equipment they use.

